MANAGE HEALTH

Mike Hill

How not to get sued, Part 94.

Mike is a Barrister at Trinity Chambers specialising in clinical negligence, dental negligence and personal injury cases, acting for both claimants and defendants. Mike qualified as a dental surgeon and practised dentistry for 15 years before coming to the Bar in 2004. He therefore has a unique understanding of clinical and dental negligence claims.

Mike will examine the most common areas of dental practice leading to allegations of negligence.

Mike's very practical session aims to help practitioners avoid these pitfalls and give an insight into the litigation process from his unique dual dentist/lawyer perspective.

Ray Prince

Where Should You Invest Your Money?

Ray is a Certified Financial Planner™ at Perspective (North East) Ltd and has specialised advising dentists since 1996. His passion is working with and helping clients who want an unbiased view as to how they can achieve their desired lifestyle and financial goals and objectives, including (for many) early retirement.

Ray's session will look at the main options investors should be aware of when investing income or capital, especially Principals who may be looking to make best use of their practice sale proceeds. He'll also bring you the latest news in the world of pensions (including the NHS pension) to help you maximise opportunities and minimise any risks.

Louise Weatherhead

A GDPR update

Louise is a solicitor in the Company and Commercial department at Sintons. She has experience advising both private and public sector clients on a range of commercial matters and procurement projects.

She specialises in Data Protection legislation, advising across all sectors on the new GDPR's, which came into force in May of this year.

Fiona Campbell

Managing Sickness Absence

Fiona is an Associate in the Company and Commercial department at Sintons, specialising in Employment. She provides support and assistance in both contentious and non-contentious matters to a variety of businesses from SMEs to large public sector institutions.
